From the Crown

Unto the good people of the Outlands do We, Hrothgar and Madigan, your Sovereign Lord and Lady, send greetings,

Gentles,

We have much news to convey to you, in this the final missive of our reign. We have enjoyed very much serving the Outlands as her King and Queen, and will continue to value the new friendships that We have made as well as those that have continued from times past. We have had tremendous help from many gentles and We appreciate the grace that their work has lent to Ourselves and to Our reign.

In Early October We traveled to Barons' War in the Kingdom of Atenveldt, where We met with Our cousins of Caid and Atenveldt. The Crown of Atenveldt has expressed great concern about the problems which have plagued Estrella war in years past, both general and particular to the Outlands. The collective Crowns, their heirs, and advisers met to create a treaty which was pleasing for all who participated. The goal of all involved was to make this year's war be one with more fighting and fun, and less political tensions than have been experienced at Estrella Wars past. As such, once again the Outlands will be a Principle Kingdom this year, along with both Atenveldt and Caid, for the first true three way Estrella War. Most of the battles will be fought three times, each time with two of the principles fighting each other, while the third army will split to even the side; a few of the battles will be three way with all three armies on the field at once! This format will provide more battles than last year (which was more than ever before), and should prove a good time for everyone involved. Hopefully, the treaty will be published in next month's Outlandish Herald, so that all may know the details.

After consulting with their Royal Highnesses, Artan and Aziza, as well as numerous others throughout the realm, we have created charters for three new awards to be given in Our Kingdom. They will be an heavy weapon fighting award, an arts and sciences award, and a service award, all of which will convey a Grant of Arms. These awards have been created for the purpose of more easily noticing gentles of Our Kingdom when recognition is deserved. Although it is late in Our reign, We feel that such a system will be of great value to the Outlands, and We have worked and spoken with Their Highnesses, that they can continue these awards throughout their reign.

We would like to thank all those gentles who traveled from afar to the Shire of the Hinterlands for the Kingdom Arts and Sciences Collegium, and to thank the Shire for hosting this event. We would also like to thank those in attendance at the rapier collegium and at St. Golias Feast Day for their company and hospitality. The Outlands is truly filled with gentle folk, and We shall always hold the company of none else higher in Our hearts.

In Service to the Outlands,

Hrothgar Madigan

From the Prince and Princess

Unto the worthy people of these noble Outlands, Artan and Aziza, heirs to the Outland's Trefoil Thrones, do send greetings,

Good People,

We hope this letter finds each of you prospering, and may you have serenity in your lives.

Please accept this missive as our personal invitation to attend our upcoming Coronation in the beautiful Citadel of the Southern Pass on November 11-12. We are looking forward to a bright, peaceful reign and we would like all of you to share in its beginning.

We thank in advance Sir Cyredd of Ashwood, the Red Duke, and Mistress Joella of Blue Lion's Keep for all of their effort autocratting our coronation. We are very appreciative.

If you wish to participate in the Queen's Champion Tournament (Nov. 11) or the Protector of the Queen's Heart Tournament (Nov. 12) you must be an authorized fighter in good standing, and you must be willing to travel in order to attend upon the Queen throughout her reign.

We have just returned from the Barons' War in Atenveldt where Their Majesties have signed the Estrella War treaty. Once again this year we shall be principal at the war, which shall be a three way conflict between The Outlands, Caid and Atenveldt. The treaty shall be published in next month's Outlandish Herald.

We ask for everyone to please contact us if you have any questions or concerns, award recommendations or anything at all. Written correspondence is usually better for us.

Please know that we remain,

In service to the Crown and Kingdom of the Outlands,

Artan Aziza

The Barony of Dragonsspine presents its Annual Competition of the Arts and Sciences

When: 10am, Saturday, November 4th, 1995
Where: Sallie Bush Community Center, Green Mountain Falls
How Much: $5.00 (children 6 through 12 at half fare) non-members add $3.00

Who: Duchess Selene of the Sky
c/o Penny Tegen (719) 597-5259
2926 Valarie Circle
Colorado Springs, CO 80917-3832

Ground Rules

0. Anyone may enter and win prizes. Only a Dragonsspinian can win the title of Champion of the Arts and Sciences for Dragonsspine.
1. A&S Categories: armor, brewing, cooking, calligraphy, costume, fabric arts (weaving, spinning), illumination, needlework, performing arts, weaponry, wood working, vinting, and other (3-D, portrait painting, et. al.).
2. Required Documentation: For full credit all you need is a 3 x 5 card containing the following information: WHAT (is the item), WHEN (was it used), WHERE (was it used), WHO (used it), WHY (did you make it i.e. authentic vs. modernistic techniques).
3. The judges will be allowed discretion to award a few extra points should an item exceed requirements - in creation techniques, documentation detail, or the very blinding beauty of an entry . . . in other words, "Judge's Discretion".
4. The dolls made for the Baronial fashion show will be displayed again.
5. There will be a gaming competition with a separate prize. The winner must also have an entry in the A&S Competition or in Selene's Special Competition.
6. There will be prize tournaments in both heavy weapons and fencing, and as last year, to win the prize you must have an entry in either the A&S Competition or in Selene's Special Competition.
7. Selene's Special Competition: I am offering a prize for the best hand-made chess set (not including the board). This chess set may also be entered in the A&S Competition. All work must be done by the entrant. Hand painted miniatures are definitely acceptable. The pieces must be medieval and identifiable as to function (King vs. Knight, etc.) If this is not enough time to complete a full set, one piece of each type, (K, Q, B, Kt, R, P) with the color scheme described for both sides will suffice.
8. The hall is available for dancing or a bardic after the evening meal should organizers be found.
9. Court will occur at the discretion of the Baron and Baroness.

Note about Dinner

The evening meal is a modified pot luck/picnic. A table will hold 8 places, a double table will hold 14-16, etc. The plan is to arrange your own household to guild or bunch of friends into an organized, self-sufficient pot luck group. Those who have not done so should plan their own side board. They are free to share courses with their neighbors or not as things work out. Each larger group should plan a spare dish for presentation to the head table so the Nobility and visiting Royalty need not bring any food. The kitchen is to be used for HEATING only - no food preparation. Please help us to avoid the problems of last year's event by carefully cleaning up after yourselves (and others!) in the kitchen.

Directions

Take I-25 from the north or south into Colorado Springs. Then take Highway 24 west to the second Green Mountain Falls exit. Follow the SCA signs. See the map on the adjacent page for details.

Outlands Toys for Tots Tournament

November 19

Calling all fighters both heavy and light. The time has come once again to rally in defense and support of the young. The needy children have called and the Outlands has answered.

On November 19, 1995 at Jeanne Bellamah Park, the fifth annual Outlands Toys for Tots Tournament will be held starting at 10am. As usual, tournaments are scheduled for both heavy and light fighters with the entrance fee for each to be a new unwrapped toy. All non-combatants are invited to donate as well.

The first prize for the heavy weapons fighters is the honor of carrying the Outlands Toys for Tots Sword for one year (forged by Baron Duncan of the Kingdom of Trimaris) along with first choice of prizes.

It has been a proud tradition of this event that every combatant and volunteer receives a prize in appreciation of their efforts in this noble cause. The Outlands is in need of donations so that once again we can offer a prize to everyone who participates. This event speaks loudly of the generosity of the populace of our great kingdom. Be a part of it. Contact the autocrat concerning donations and any questions you may have.

From the Society Archery Marshal

Greetings to the archers of all the kingdoms

The Society Marshall has appointed me as Society Archery Marshal. And I would like to introduce myself. I am Sir Jon Fitz-Rauf, O.L., O.P., of the West. I have been in the Society since ASII. I have been actively involved in both target and combat archery in the Society for over twenty years. I am the Keeper and originator of the IKAC and IKCAC and also originated the Royal Round.

My initial plans for the office are to improve communications between the archers of all the kingdoms and to try to improve the sharing of information and ideas. I am preparing a survey on archery in the Society and would like to hear from you on what you feel is right or wrong with archery, and what could be done to improve its status. Your comments may be incorporated into the upcoming survey.

I would also like to hear from any of you that have experimented on new or improved combat arrow designs, both wood shaft, golf tube or other styles.

Jon

Un Fuego en el invierno

30 December

Storeroom getting low? Seen too many visitors over the winter holidays? Tired of being cooped up indoors and never getting to fight campaigns outdoors where creatures belong? Then join us in all your finery in Tygre's Keep and Dragonsspine for a event in honor of the union of Lady Alejandra Abelena Isabel Marin and Lord Javier de Los Santos!

The event will commence with fighting around 12:30. Games, war scenarios, and a tournament will be the fighting fare of the day for heavy and light weapons fighters. As evening approaches and appetites increase we will away from the fighting fields to the feast hall. The feast will commence at 6:00 pm, where we would like to see a variety of dance and music. So bring your drums, recorders, harps, bodies, voices, and whatnot to join in a merry time for one and all.

Although it is not part of the official SCA event, if you want to attend the 14th century wedding, it will be held at Shove Chapel on the Colorado College campus. It will begin at 11:00 am SHARP. All who wish to attend are welcome. We would love to have you there, in garb of course.

The Tournament: The actual event will begin directly following the wedding at approximately 12:30 pm in Armstrong Quadrangle located outside the chapel. We will fight whether it snows or not! However, if it rains heavily, we will have to forgo the fighting.

The Feast (cooked by Mistress Elaina): The site for the feast is St. Mary's Cathedral Conference Hall, located at 22 W. Kiowa. Because of the wedding before the event there will be mundanes present, though many of them will be assuming personae for the day and will be dressing accordingly. We want as many of you there as possible to extend our famous Outlandish hospitality (and to outnumber the mundane guests)!

Fees: Site fee it $3.00 ($6.00 for non-members). Feast is $5.00. Reservations are required since we have limited space. Please place feast reservations by December 15, 1995.

Directions: To the Colorado College campus (the tournament site) take I-25 to exit 143 (Uintah St.). Go east to either Cascade or Nevada. Turn south. Shove Chapel is very visible from whichever street. Street and parking-lot parking are available around the campus.

To St. Mary's from I-25 take exit 142 (Bijou St.) and go east. Bijou turns immediately into Kiowa (one-way east). The cathedral is the large brick building with the golden steeple on the left.

To St. Mary's from the fighting site: Head south on Cascade to Bijou and take the second right onto it so that you can take an immediate left into the parking lot.

Additional information: All sites are BONE DRY. We would like to make the hall as beautiful as possible, so we request the presence of many banners to display in the hall at St. Mary's. We are not allowed to affix anything to the walls or ceiling, as this is a brand new beautifully remodeled facility. Therefore, you will need to provide your own indoor banner hold and stand (plaster of paris in an old coffee can works beautifully). We, the bride and groom, will be meeting at St. Mary's from 1 - 4 pm on the afternoon of Friday, December 29 to decorate the hall. All who are able and willing to help are more than welcome to show up. We will provide music and refreshment for all who attend. For hotel accommodations, please call Lord Javier.

For more information, please feel free to contact the autocrats.

This is "THE" story of the founding of the SCA as told to Mistress Dorothea of Caer-Myrddin by Mistress Diana Listmaker.

Once upon a time there was a scholar who lived in an ivory tower. And in that tower lived many other scholars, who spent their time reading books and writing papers about what some other scholar had said another scholar had said another scholar had said they used to do in the Middle Ages.

But the scholar of whom I speak was more fortunate than the rest, for she used to escape from the tower from time to time and go down into the town, where she met many interesting people. And some of these folk belonged to a tribe called "fandom," and they too read many books and wrote many papers, and they published them in loose journals printed on coarse wood-pulp paper. And the scholar, who had some skill as an artist, drew pictures of knights and ladies and elves and dragons, and these appeared in the wood-pulp paper journals.

And in this tribe were two young men with whom the scholar became acquainted; and they were beautiful young men, one dark and one fair, and both with eyes the color of summer heaven. And on a day the scholar went to visit the young men in their home, and she saw hanging on the wall two bright swords and two well-wrought shields emblazoned with devices of heraldry. And she said, "What do you do with those?"

And the young men replied, "WE FIGHT WITH THEM." And the scholar said, "How splendid. Next time you practice, I shall come and draw pictures of you."

And on many a day the young men met to practice their skills with sword and shield, and the scholar covered many sheetsof wood-pulp paper with their likenesses.

Then there came the day when the scholar stepped out of her own house into her back yard, and the thought came to her, "You could hold a tournament here.

"Look! Here the fighters could fight, and here the spectators could sit, and if there were too many of them some of them could stand behind the wall there, safe from random blows. You could do it. You could hold a tournament here."

And she thought, "How delightful!" But she also bethought her that she had her Master's orals coming up in two weeks, and going back into her kitchen, she said to her housemates, "I've had the most wonderful idea. TALK ME OUT OF IT!"

And she told her housemates her idea, and they all answered, "That's wonderful! We'll all help!" And so they chose the First of May as the date of the tournament, and they caused to be printed on many sheets of wood-pulp paper the message, "Come to a Tournament—for that it is spring." And the message was broadcast all round the ivory tower and the town besides.

And on the day, at the stroke of noon, being the time set to begin the tournament, the scholar set foot outside her door, and there was no one there. And half an hour later, she stepped outside her door again, and there were fifty people there.

Then came Jon deCles in the robes of an Archbishop, and intoned, "Ecce Eduardus Ursus nunc occipite post Christophorum Robinem tump-tump-tump scalis descendens," and all sang "Amen." And Elizabeth Pope, Doctor of Philosophy, was named Judge of the Lists, and the knights and squires came forth to do battle, and many brave deeds of swordplay were seen.

And young David the Herald fought so well that Sir Siegfried von Hoeflischkeit dubbed him Knight there upon the field.

And Marynel of Darkhaven, being then but young, had bidden her father Beverly Hodghead to come to the place half an hour after she did, in case she wished to return home; but when he saw the noble company and the deeds that were being done, he hurried home and returned again in haste, bringing the crossbow that he had made for himself. And he fired a bolt against one of the shields, and behold! the point curled up upon itself like a little shell.

And a certain Knight was named victor, and he crowned his Lady with a wreath of roses. And then all said to one another, "What shall we do next?" And it was answered generally thus, "This is Berkeley. Should wenot be protesting something?" And they marched up and down Telegraph Avenue protesting the ugliness of the twentieth century, from which they had escaped that day.

And then, passing by the market, they bought roasted chickens and bottles of wine, and returning to the field of the tournament, they built a fire and sat around it, eating chickens and drinking wine and telling tales, long into the night.

And the scholar, sitting by the fire, said to herself, "This happened. This really happened. The Last Tournament wasn't in 1839, it happened today; and someday, years from now, I shall be able to tell my grandchildren that once, just once long ago, this happened."

But the man seated beside her was saying to the man next to him, "Now, next time I'm going to hit him like THIS!"

Interkingdom Advisory Council

Greetings fellow Outlanders,

The current topics of discussion in the Interkingdom Advisory Council are: 1) Revision of the appointment and removal procedures for territorial Barons/Baronesses (Corpora VI.B.1) and 2) Branch minimum membership numbers and new branch types (Corpora V). There is no specific proposal for either of these topics being considered by the Board of Directors.

The deadline for comments is mid December, but earlier is better. Thank you for the comments I've already received. Hopefully, I will continue to get more as there's only been a handful so far.

Here is a synopsis of the current appointment and removal procedures taken from Corpora VI.B.1. Barons/Baronesses are appointed by the Crown. The barony's opinion must be requested and received in writing. Appointments must not be substantively opposed by the populace of the barony. The Crown may suspend or remove a territorial Baron and/or Baroness for just and stated cause. Suspension prohibits the use of the baronial titles and arms, the conduct of baronial courts, and the presentation of baronial awards. The Crown must request a written opinion from the populace of the barony before removing a Baron and/or Baroness.

The current subscribing membership numbers required for branches are: 400 for kingdom, 100 for principality, 25 for barony/province and 5 for shire/canton/riding/college/etc. Note that more than the minimum is usually expected, to account for the inevitable drop in membership after the drive to achieve branch status.

I look forward to hearing more of your opinions. I can be reached at:

From the Deputy Chronicler

Mistress Elaina sends greetings,

Next month's issue will be a special A & S (Arts and Seneschalate) issue which will include the kingdom laws and a number of articles. Please note that we will be keeping strictly to the submissions deadlines! In Service,

Elaina

From the Seneschal

Good Gentles,

I would like to express my sincere thanks to the group seneschals, autocrats, trolls, and all others involved in conducting recent events for their efforts in complying with the Society's Non-Member Surcharge (NMS) Policy. During the past quarter, the NMS fees were submitted from fourteen events for 612 individuals. Your efforts placed the Outlands [the tenth Kingdom in population (1,155 members) with a reputation for a high percentage of paid members] sixth in NMS fees submitted ahead of larger Kingdoms such as the Middle, West, and Atenveldt.

The SCA is very dependent on the NMS fees to balance its budget after the reversals last year, especially the twenty thousand dollar settlement to the "Save Our Society" group. One third of the NMS funds collected are returned to the Outlands to help subsidize the Outlandish Hearld and other Kingdom projects. Please keep up the good work. [If, for some reason, the NMS fees for your event were overlooked, its never too late to make a good faith accounting.]

Various questions have been asked recently about what constitutes an official event. According to Corpora (II.A), "All Society events must be sponsored by branches of the Society, registered with the Seneschal of the sponsoring branch and publicized at least to the members of that branch, and conducted according to Society rules". The group sponsoring an event must be an official branch; incipient groups need to coordinate with a registered group for sponsorship.

The only events that must be announced in the OH are "formal actions and announcements with long-term impact on the Society" (Corpora, II.B). These items include the Crown lists and coronations, changes to Kingdom Law, elevation of branches, banishments, appointment of officers, and awards. If you are planning an event where any of these actions will occur but can not be published in the OH because of the "one event per month per group" policy, please contact the Chronicler to have a short "legal" announcement printed.

In service,

Lambert

From the Chirurgeon

This summer I attended many events where a tournament was being held. At one particular tournament, a fighter was in obvious pain from an injury but was determined to continue fighting. As I watched, a gentle on the sidelines asked me, "Why don't you do something? Can't you see that he needs to be taken out and cared for?" I never answered that gentle but it occured to me that many people do not know the role of the chirurgeon in our medieval setting, nor do they know the limitations chirurgeons have placed on them by the SCA and by state laws.

A chirurgeon is an individual who has successfully completed a minimum of American Red Cross First Aid and CPR, is a paid member of the SCA, and has shown an interest in providing volunteer First Aid at SCA events. A chirurgeon must be familiar with the mundane standards, regulations, responsibilities, and liabilities of providing first aid in their state of residence. At events chirurgeons are supposed to provide first aid to any who request it, train apprentice chirurgeons in proper procedures such as holds and when to go on to the field, advise the marshallate of injuries related to fighting, and generally promote safety.

There are a few things that a chirurgeon is not supposed to do. A chirurgeon cannot stop a fighter from participating in armed combat. Only the marshall can do that. In addition, a chirurgeon cannot provide first aid treatment unless asked to by the injured party. To force medical care on a person is not treatment, it's assault. Lastly, a chirurgeon cannot provide treatment beyond the level of American Red Cross First Aid. To do so violates the Good Samaritan Laws in most states. A chirurgeon who exceeds Red Cross First Aid takes the full responsibility of his or her actions. There are some gentles at events who have medical certifications but are not chirurgeons. These people are welcome to act to the legal limit of their certifications. There are also some gentles who rush to take care of people, but have no medical certifications whatsoever. Receive treatment from people with no medical credentials at your own risk. I am always available to answer questions about the Chirurgeon's Guild, First Aid (I happen to be an instructor), or provide help setting up first aid response in your area. I can be reached at the phone number or address listed in this publication, or I can be reached via E-Mail at masterrhys@aol.com.

In Service,

From the Former Mistress of Arts & Sciences

This is my last article as Outlands Minister of Arts and Sciences. It has been a long term, filled with both fun and frustration. I have enjoyed most of the time that I've held the office. I've been able to meet a lot of wonderful people. Hopefully, I was able to provide adequate support for the arts and sciences in the Kingdom. But, it is time to move on to other things. I look forward to having a student at long last and there are musical and fiber projects that I can finally start.

I would like to thank those good gentles who participated in the Kingdom Collegium. Thank you to those who shared their skills.

This job is not a solo effort. I would like to thank Crowns and Kingdom Seneschals past and present for their support. Thanks to the Chroniclers past and present who helped get the word out about the arts events. Thank you to the groups who autocratted the arts events. I also wish to thank the local arts and sciences officers who helped make my job easier with their support of the arts and regular reporting. I especially wish to thank Lady Kaylin Tamashi for hanging in above and beyond and Lady Rose Owyne for her notes and encouragement. Thank you to Master Hagar the Black and Mistress Ava Trudine for their help, support, and shoulders. I wish to thank Duchess Jeanne D'Aussey and Master Lambert du Sur for their support, help and friendship. A special thank you to Lady Marie d'Acre who will be taking over this office.

There's a lot that goes on behind the scenes with this office. A very special thank you to Brother Vale who did a lot of behind the scenes work, lifting, carrying, driving all night to arts events, late night copying of A&S reports, and picking up stamps among other things. He made holding this office much easier.

In closing, thank you all very much.

In service to the Outlands.

From the Society Chronicler

Unto the Good Gentles of the Known World Come Greetings From THL Theahtyn of Girvan, Society Chronicler

At the July 1995 meeting of the BoD, the Board granted my request to continue serving the Society as Society Chronicler for the next two years. In preparation for a smooth transition should some ill or some good befall me, I am opening a search for a deputy. The position pays nothing and the rewards are meager, except for the personal satisfaction of working with good people all over the Known World. Having experience with publications, especially, but not exclusively, SCA, is important. Having good manners and self-editing skills is even more important. Pointy hats are not important (in this case). Mundane stability is.

If you are interested, please send a letter of introduction and both a mundane and SCA resume to me (be forwarned; my mundane persona is an English professor). I will forward the information to the incoming BoD Chronicler's ombudsman when he/she is determined. The closing date for applications is January 31, 1996.

Yours in Continuous Delighted Service,

Theahtyn

In addition, I am seeking ideas to make Pennsic XXV memorable to all.
